

THE duldest week since the mid-summer heat prevented all social activity has just passed. The week has been almost barren of events of any kind, only one or two very informal affairs having taken place. All the attention of the younger set was turned toward the marriage of Miss Edith Ferry and Lieutenant Merrill, which took place last Wednesday, and the many warm friends of the young people here took an active interest in the happy event, although not present at the nuptials.

The other events were the luncheons given by Mrs. Downey and Mrs. Charles A. Walker, and the card party at the home of Mrs. Fulop. The week just beginning promises much more in a social way. The latter part will be filled with the pranks and frolics which are generally a part of the Halloween pleasure, and even the early part has some pleasant events scheduled. The first part of next month will see a turn, doubtless, of the gaiety of the winter season, as already a number of invitations are out for some events at that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Mackintosh announce the engagement of their daughter, Jane, to Mr. Malcolm G. Truman of Chicago. The marriage will take place some time early in the new year.

Miss Agatha Berkhoel, who has been meeting with splendid success as vocal soloist with the Canadian Symphony orchestra, will give a recital here next month, assisted by Professor McClellan and Mr. Skelton, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Presbyterian church. Miss Berkhoel won the medal for excellence in her work in the graduating class at the Chicago College of Music, where, in addition to private vocal lessons under Mrs. Fox, she studied harmony, composition, sight-reading and languages.

The young girls of Rowland Hall will enjoy an informal masquerade party next Saturday evening.

Mr. Thomas Kearns will give a large luncheon on Thursday, Nov. 5.

Mrs. A. H. Tarbet has issued invitations for a luncheon to be given at the Commercial club, Oct. 23, in honor of her guest, Miss Lavell.

Miss Stella Salisbury entertains at an informal tea at the Country club tomorrow, complimentary to Miss Grace Jacobs.

The reunion of the Wells family will take place Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Lyde Wells on Eighth East street.

Mrs. Charles Clifton Slade entertains at cards Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 23, also Monday afternoon, Nov. 2.

Miss Nellie Austin of Grand Rapids, who passed through Salt Lake on her way to Portland a few weeks ago, arrived in the city yesterday from the northwest and will spend a few days at the Wilson.

Mrs. George T. Price has issued invitations for a 4 o'clock tea to meet Mrs. F. J. Hill, for Wednesday, Nov. 4.

Dr. and Mrs. E. S. Wright, Dr. and Mrs. L. W. Snow and Mr. and Mrs. George Read, Jr., will give a large reception and dance in Christensen's hall next Thursday evening.

Professor and Mrs. W. A. Wetzel will entertain Saturday evening at a most unique Halloween party, at which a number of clever specialties will be given by some of the leading musical people of town.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Perkins will give an ante-Halloween party Thursday evening at St. Paul's rectory.

The Ladies' Aid society of the First Congregational church will give a reception in the church parlors Tuesday evening, to meet the new pastor, Mr. Goshen. Everybody is invited.

Miss Ida Hanner, who is at present in New York, will return to the city about the middle of November.

Edward B. Sterling of Portland, Ore., who has been visiting friends in the city for the past few days, left yesterday for Chicago.

Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Shores of San Francisco have decided to remain in Salt Lake for the winter and will be at home to their friends at 609 East Third South.

Mrs. O. H. Pease will entertain at her home, 675 Fourth street, on Tuesday afternoon for the benefit of St. Mark's guild.

Miss May and Ivy Price will entertain informally Friday evening at a Halloween party.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas G. Finch announce the marriage of their daughter Irene to Wythe E. Walker of San Francisco, Oct. 19.

The second in the series of charity card parties given by the Jewish Relief society will take place Tuesday at 2 o'clock in the B. B. rooms. Mrs. Harry Ganz and Mrs. Ben Davis will be the hostesses.

The Thistle Social club will give a concert and dance in Harmony hall next Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wilkinson will entertain Friday evening at their home in Salt Lake for the winter, in honor of the men of Sheriff Emery's staff and their wives.

The Misses A. Lucasia Rogers and E. Winfield Morrison, of the Ralston university of Washington, D. C., will give an informal reception and talk on health and beauty in the parlors of the Kenyon tomorrow afternoon at 3:30.

Miss Olive Flemming, who has spent the summer with her sister, Mrs. H. J. Burt, will leave today for her home in Champaign, Ill. Yesterday afternoon she gave a recital for her pupils, in which about twelve young people took part.

The marriage of Miss Mary Broadbent and Mr. Joseph Wilkinson took place in the temple last Tuesday morning. The young people will be at home after tomorrow at 148 West South Temple street.

The first dance given by the Pencibles, company D, will be Friday evening at their armory.

Mrs. Dorsey Ash was the hostess yesterday afternoon at the second in a series of military euhre parties at which about sixteen of her friends were the guests. The home was beautifully decorated with all sorts of military paraphernalia and the tables and seats were all on the military order. The game is a new one and bids fair to be very popular. Each table shows a different country with all its colors and military signs. At the first party the prizes were won by Mrs. Raymond, Mrs. Kriebel, Mr. Curtis and Dr. Hyatt. At that given yesterday the prize winners were Mrs. William Bartling, Mrs. C. Ira Tuttle, Mrs. Wakeling and Miss Culmer.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Mudd of Denver are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Cleaver.

Charles H. Bristol of New York, one of the officials of the Western Union and a life time friend of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Swenson, spent yesterday in the city as their guest.

Dr. and Mrs. Hector Griswold are now nicely settled in their new residence at 1148 East First South street.

Mrs. H. T. Cleaver will leave Monday for Los Angeles, where she will spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Hill are now at home at 183 Center street.

The Misses Maguire of Ogden spent yesterday in the city shopping and visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Newhouse are expected today from Denver.

Mrs. Morton French will return during the week to the Annie Laurie mine after a visit of some time with her mother.

Mrs. George Matson of Ogden spent yesterday in the city.

Dr. and Mrs. Castleman of Mercur have decided to go abroad for about a year and will leave shortly for New York, whence they will return during the autumn.

The Misses Mabel Wells and Eva Pyper charmingly entertained a number of their friends at the home of the former on Friday evening. The house was prettily decorated, the parlor in autumn leaves, ferns and sweet peas. Dainty refreshments were served in the dining room, where red and white prevailed. Smiles and carriages were used for the table. The evening was very pleasantly spent in playing various guessing games in which the first prize was awarded to Miss Irene Armstrong, the booty to Mr. Harve Peterson. The tally cards were red and white. At late hour the guests departed, all expressing the pleasure of having spent a delightful evening.

The invited guests were the Misses Cora and Hazel Mallin, Florence Madison, Irene Armstrong, Bessie and Alice Brooks, Edith Stanton, May Natusky, Edna Petty, Misses Louise Patten, Hazel Wilkinson and Mrs. Pyper, Pearl Wells and Mabel Wells and Messrs. Spencer and John Young, Sidney Chesley, George Russell, Charlie Raybould, Jack Browning, Henry Smith, Harve Peterson, Clyde Mitchell, George Sedaberg, Horace Stambidge, Less Covey, Harry Nexon, Will Scott, Jimmy Oswald, Willie Wells and Clarence Wells.

Mr. Joseph Nattress was very pleasantly surprised at his home on South Temple Monday evening, the 50th anniversary of his birth. The evening was spent in dancing and refreshments. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schaefer, wife and Mrs. J. Schaefer, Mrs. Lowery, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Carr, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Nattress, Mr. and Mrs. W. Wallace, Mr. and Mrs. Olsen, Mr. and Mrs. Erwin, Mrs. Baty, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Isaac, Mrs. Surtess, Mrs. Stobart, Mrs. Coles, Mrs. Joseph Nattress, Mrs. Stubbart, Mrs. Laidie Patten, Mrs. Rachel Isaac, Miss Ella Isaac.

The Misses Nellie and Florence Sherman entertained a few of their girl friends in honor of Frances Newcomb, who is going to Salem, Ore., to reside. The evening was pleasantly spent with games, music and recitations. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Those present were: Frances Newcomb, Ruth Chandler, Catherine McCrackin, Edith Beless, Erma Pendleton, Mabel Casady, Alva Servie, Harriet McCrackin, Nora Pendleton, Margaret Parsons, Winifred Sims, Mabel Bennett, Hattie Walfies and Cora Kaler.

On Wednesday evening Miss Etta Roberts was agreeably surprised by a number of her friends. The rooms were tastefully decorated in asters, dahlias and autumn leaves. Interesting games were indulged in and several vocal and instrumental selections rendered, after which the guests adjourned to the dining room where a dainty supper was served. Among those present were: Misses Lenore Brown, June Watson, E. Thompson, L. Sponberg, Evans, Stewart, Messrs. Carl Evans, J. Johnson, Clarence Renshaw, Bert Shaw, R. B. Danley, Williams, Stewart.

On Monday evening last Mrs. A. D. Smith entertained at her home, 632 Second street, the friends of her son Frank at cards, it being his twenty-first anniversary. The rooms were handsomely decorated with palms and floral designs, which made a very pretty appearance. Sixty-three was the feature of the evening, in which Mr. Ross Feveryear was the winner of the first prize. An elaborate supper was served, at which the boys enjoyed themselves by singing songs. Everything in the Newest Foreign Dress Fabric Creations, all the grand materials decreed by "Dame Fashion" to be indispensable to the wardrobe of the fashionable woman, are to be found here in this remarkable under-priced offering.

The Story of These Tremendous Values Is Briefly Told:

We bought too heavily in black goods for this season and find ourselves greatly overstocked. Not only this; but we overreached ourselves in high priced fabrics. We bought the very best and highest class foreign materials produced; but they did not sell as we planned they should. Therefore we are letting go of all this character of goods at tremendous loss, now at the height of the season before it is too late to realize on them. We take our loss philosophically and give the ladies of Salt Lake the rarest bargain opportunity that has ever come their way.

Fabrics such as these made up by the recognized high priced dress makers would cost from $100.00 to $200.00 for a gown, according to the trimmings and the amount of work on it, yet WE OFFER THESE VERY MATERIALS TO YOU AT THE RIDICULOUS PRICE OF $1.00 PER YARD.

Most of these patterns are only in skirt or dress lengths as we only buy these highest grade fabrics this way to avoid duplicates and assure purchasers that there will be no two dresses of the same material in the city. This is of great importance to intending purchasers for no woman wants to feel that her neighbor or intimate friend will perhaps have a dress cut off the same bolt. It insures safety, individuality, and distinction and makes this sale strictly one of
